Question 11a

In the ordinary course of business, the UAW retains more than 125 law firms throughout the United States to represent the Union and its active and retired membership in a variety of legal disputes with employers and others. My spouse, Nicole Sodko, is a legal assistant at one of those law firms, Pepper Hamilton, LLP. The UAW was an established client of the firm before she joined it. The Union's use of the firm is entirely in ordinary course of business.

Question 11b

The UAW's expenses for legal fees for outside law firms are set forth in the Union's LM-2 report. That figure represents the amount paid in the aggregate to all outside law firms. Each individual firm receives only a small portion of that amount, and the amount paid to each firm may vary considerably from year-to-year, depending on the nature and extent of the work performed. In 2003, Pepper Hamilton, LLP billed the UAW less than $500.

Question 12

My spouse, Nicole Sodko, is a legal assistant at the law firm identified in Question 12. Her annual income for 2004 is set forth in Box 12b. As noted above, the firm did only very small amount of work for the UAW in 2004.
